

JANUARY HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

Be Their Voice

Human trafficking is a crime where traffickers use the act of trickery, force, or coercion of victims to provide labor, services or sexual services. The coercion can be made both physically or emotionally. Victims can be anyone —race, color, disabilities, age, gender, socioeconomic status, citizenship status or education level.

Speak Up!

If you suspect or are knowledgeable about human trafficking, call 1-888-373-7888 or 911 or TEXT 233733.

Scan this
QR Code for Resources

